(Previously called Program B) ~
AND
~JAPANESE GOVERNMENT ( MONBUKAGAKUSHO: MEXT ) SCHOLARSHIP~

1 Qualifications

1) Institution:

Applicants must be enrolled in an institution (a university, a faculty or a school) having an exchange agreement with Kanazawa University.

2) Nationality:

Applicants must be a national of a country with which Japanese government has diplomatic relations. An applicant who has Japanese nationality at the time of application is not eligible. However, persons with dual nationality who hold Japanese nationality and whose place of residence at the time of application is outside of Japan are eligible to apply as long as they choose the nationality of the foreign country and give up their Japanese nationality by the date of their arrival in Japan. Applicant screening will be conducted at the Japanese diplomatic mission in the country of applicant's nationality.

3) Age:

Applicants generally must have been born between April 2, 1992 and April 1, 2004.

4) Academic Background:

Applicants must be enrolled in an institution mentioned above 1) as undergraduate students (junior or senior) majoring in Japanese language or Japanese culture at the time of arriving in and leaving Japan.

Those majoring in fields of study other than Japanese language and Japanese culture and who wish to pursue complementary studies in Japanese language and culture should apply for Kanazawa University Exchange Program (KUEP) in the next term.

5) Language:

A level equal to that of Japanese Language Proficiency Test Level N2 is required.

6) Health:

Applicants must be healthy in both mind and body for studying in the university.

7) Arrival in Japan:

Scholarship recipients must arrive in Japan in late September, 2022.

8) Applicants are required to acquire a "College Student" visa when they come to Japan.

9) Others:

Scholarship recipients shall immediately return to their home country and resume their studies at their school after the end of the period for the provision of the scholarship. After returning to the home country, former scholarship recipients shall maintain close contact with the university where they studied, cooperate with the conducting of post-return survey questionnaires, participate in events conducted by Japanese diplomatic missions in their country, and work to improve relations between the home country and Japan.

10) Any applicant who meets any or all of the following conditions is ineligible. If identified after the start of the scholarship period, the applicant will be required to withdraw from the scholarship.

a) Those who are military personnel or military civilian employees at the time of their arrival in Japan;

b) Those who cannot arrive in Japan by the specified date determined by Kanazawa University;

c) Those who have received a Japanese Government Scholarship (Monbukagakusho scholarship) in the past;

- d) Those who are currently enrolled at a Japanese university with a College Student (ryugaku) residence status; those enrolled, or scheduled to be enrolled, at a Japanese university as a privately financed international student during the period when the scholarship application was filed in the home country until prior to the start of the provision of the scholarship; However, even if the applicant is currently a privately financed international student studying in Japan, this restriction does not apply to an applicant who will certainly finish the current course before the start of the designated course at the Japanese university and will return to the home country;
- e) Recipients of scholarships from institutions other than MEXT (including government institutions in their home countries) that overlap with the Japanese Government Scholarship (Prospective beneficiaries are included);
- f) Recipients who make a double application for this scholarship to other universities, other embassy recommendations, and the Student Exchange Support Program provided by Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO);
- g) Those who have studied the Japanese language at a university for a total period of less than one year as of September 2022. Those who have studied Japanese for a total of at least one year at another university should submit without fail documents (transcript of grades at other university, etc.) that can verify that the applicant studied Japanese for a period of at least one year at the said university;
- h) Holders of dual nationality at the time of application who cannot verify that they will give up Japanese nationality by the time of the arrival in Japan.
